

Oklahoma City Chapter 2018 PRSA Student Scholarship Application

PURPOSE

Chartered in 1947, the Public Relations Society of America (PRSA) is the world's largest and foremost organization of public relations professionals with more than 22,000 public relations and communications professionals, in addition to more than 10,000 university and college students through the Public Relations Student Society of America (PRSSA).

PRSA provides professional development, sets standards of excellence and upholds principles of ethics for its members. We also advocate for greater understanding and adoption of public relations services, and act as one of the industry's leading voices on pivotal business and professional issues.

The Oklahoma City Chapter serves Oklahoma City and the surrounding areas including western and southwestern Oklahoma. The Chapter consists of more than 150 dedicated professionals who practice public relations for corporations, public relations firms, government agencies, health and medical entities, nonprofit and other professional organizations.

SCHOLARSHIPS

The Oklahoma City Chapter of the Public Relations Society of America will award two merit-based scholarships in the amount of $1,000 to be used during the 2018-2019 academic year. Funds will be disbursed in the fall 2018 semester.

QUALIFICATIONS

To qualify for scholarship, you must be:

- A PRSSA member in good standing
- Pursuing a public relations degree full-time (enrolled in at least 12 hours)
- A sophomore or junior (or a senior planning to be in school for an additional year) at a four-year Oklahoma college or university

Scholarship selection will be based on aptitude, interest in the public relations field, academic performance and demonstration of community service. The winner will be honored at the PRSA OKC Upper Case Award Banquet and Annual Meeting in Oklahoma City.

INSTRUCTIONS

Thoroughly complete the attached application, type or print clearly, and include:

- Your most recent college transcript.
